What's at Oaklands?

Oaklands is a collection of businesses that make up a truly unique centre in Pambula. Built over the last 4 years, Oaklands has grown into a beautiful rustic style centre. It houses an Event Centre, Garden Nursery, Landscape Supplies, Café, Art Gallery, Gift Shop, Antique and Old Wares and Animal Nursery. It's a great place to spend some time enjoying the surroundings, have a wedding or party, pop in for a fabulous lunch, get some plants or a special gift, pat a donkey or buy some beautiful local art. Each month this newsletter will update you with the latest happenings at Oaklands.

In the garden this month

Plant.....

- Bare rooted trees.
- Asparagus.
- Alyssum, calendula, cineraria, dianthus, pansy, primula & viola.
- Broad beans, cress, lettuce and mustard.
- Colour your garden with pots of winter annuals. Perfect for cooler areas, romantic pansies thrive in any good-quality potting mix. Remove dead flowers, and water and liquid fertilise to keep them blooming well into spring.

A man with a beard and mustache, wearing a dark blue sweater and light blue jeans, stands in the center of a cluttered shed. The shed is filled with various antique items, including tools, lanterns, and a large wheel. The text "Massive Antique Auction 8th July" is overlaid in large white letters.

Massive Antique Auction 8th July

Don't miss the massive auction in Merv's shed on the 8th of July. Merv has something for everyone in his shop from fine china to antique tools. This is an unreserved auction! One item that is creating a lot of interest is a stunning 1770's grandfather clock. There is a large collection of old tins, beautiful crockery and many collectables. The shop will be cleared and Merv will have a couple of months off while collecting stock for his new shop at Oaklands. Auction starts at 10am on the 8th, with viewing from 8am—Don't miss it!.

Mary O'Donnell and Paul Heffernan (left) of Merimbula have lunch at the Oaklands Café. The café is well known for its top quality, all home made food.
