Party like its the end of the year! Oaklands offers three choices of Christmas Parties.

Party like its 1959 with THE HOOPS on November 30th for great rock and roll, dancing and lots of fun.

Hugely popular locals, Andy O'Donnell, Dave Crowden, Ken Vatcher and Pol O'Shea are on December 15th with their slick and tasty band Andy O'Donnell and the Figmentz

Returning from Singapore and tours in various parts of the world is the divine Corinne Gibbons. Corinne has a huge following and will be teaming up with Andy O'Donnell for this great night.

The Mumbulla Foundation had a Great Gatsby night at Oaklands and they really did have a wonderful time. $20,000 was raised, the costumes were fabulous and it was described as "the best Mumbulla Dinner yet" Congratulations to the committee for such a wonderful effort. Oaklands is proud to be a supporter of the Mumbulla Foundation. Pictured are the owners of the Oaklands Cafe, Lynette (left) and Eleanor (right) in the Gatsby swing of things, along with Greg and Robyn Whitby.

Oaklands and Friends Support the Fire Brigades

Generous support from Rob at Great Ocean Foods in Pambula and Jimmy at Regional Fruit Market in Fyshwick along with donations from local artists and businesses helped to raise $3,800 for local fire brigades. Oaklands Event Centre, Sapphire Coast Tree Services, Oaklands Galley Artists, Oaklands Garden Centre, Club Bega, Centipede Trees, Terry Heffernan Contracting, Uees Rural Service, Tootie Gibbs and Kanoona Court Bed and Breakfast all donated prizes or auction items. 120 people attended dinner with music by Angus Rump and the Chips at Oaklands.

Artists of Oaklands Gallery featuring Trish Collins

Trish has been painting since 2006 and joined The Village Gallery at Oaklands in 2009.

Her favourite subjects are minimalist landscapes and she paints in acrylic. Trish lives at Tura Beach with her family and loves being a part of the Oaklands community.

Trish's painting (right) Tathra Road II was one in a series of farms she drove past on her way to work in Bega. A flowering jacaranda provided a splash of colour in stark contrast to the bleached paddocks nearby. Trish donated this painting to the Fire Brigade fundraising night. Along with other Oaklands artists, Tom Bosman, Trish Collins, Pam Collins and Wolumla artist Tootie Gibbs they helped to raise $1,300 for the auction.

The Village Gallery is open 7 days from 10am to 4pm and features beautiful works art, jewellery, pottery and gifts.

Coming Up at Oaklands.....

- Music of the Valley January 18th
- The Long Table—a showcase of wine and produce Feb 14th
- The music of Hank Williams—April 12th

The Event Centre hosted the 1st Australian Task Force South Vietnam for dinner on Remembrance Day as part of the their biannual reunion. What a great group of people they were and so many medals! We hope they will visit the Valley again.
